Green Dot Scam Victim Calls Local Walmart Negligent

by Michael J. Marino

A Walmart store in Billings reportedly refused to refund the money Melissa Hansen lost when she bought a prepaid debit card that turned out to be tampered with and rendered unusable by a scammer. Neither will the card issuer, leaving her short hundreds of dollars with little hope for a resolution.

Hansen said back on August 26, she went to Walmart off King Ave. West to transfer money to a friend. She decided to go with a Green Dot prepaid card.

Next, Hansen said, "The [cashier] told me they had received a case of these cards that had no [CVVs] on them so you could not activate them.” Despite making that statement, the employee told Hansen the problem cards were removed from the shelf and that she would be “perfectly fine” if she purchased one. Hansen proceeded with

A campaign graphic for James Brown's run for the Montana Supreme Court. The background is a dark, slightly blurred image of a man in a suit and glasses, identified as James Brown, sitting at a desk and writing on a document with a pen. To his right, a wooden gavel and several law books are visible. Overlaid on the image is a large red silhouette of the state of Montana. Inside the Montana outline, the text 'JAMES BROWN' is written in large, white, serif capital letters, with a white icon of a classical building with columns and a pediment to the left of the name. Below the name, the words 'SUPREME COURT' are written in smaller, white, sans-serif capital letters. To the left of the Montana outline, the text '400TM' is visible. Below the Montana outline, a dark grey rectangular box contains three bullet points in white, sans-serif capital letters: '• PRESERVE THE RULE OF LAW', '• FOLLOW THE CONSTITUTION', and '• NO ACTIVIST JUDGES'. At the bottom of the graphic, a dark grey banner contains the text 'JamesBrownforMontana.com' and 'jim@jamesbrownformontana.com' in white, sans-serif font. Below this banner, the words 'THE CONSERVATIVE CHOICE' are written in large, bold, white, sans-serif capital letters. In the bottom right corner, a small white box contains the text 'Paid for by: James Brown for Montana Supreme Court. PO Box 1585 Helena, MT 59624. Nonpartisan' in a small, black, sans-serif font.
